International Show in Russia.

An International exhibition of ma-

the cleaning, screening, dressing and yield of grain and other seed will be held at St. Petersburg from March 1 to 15. It is to be organized and presided by the Imperial Free Economic society of Russia in St. Petersburg for the purpose of exhibiting the agricultural implement makers and merchants, etc., with the best and newest machinery for cleaning, screening, dressing and drying grain and other seed. The exhibition is being organized in consequence of the Government's desire to enforce stringent laws with a view to stop the general low and often fraudulent quality of the Russian export grain, and to show the American Elevator.

Sport-loving English Persons. The fox-hunting parson, as much sportsman as parson, has somewhat died out, while his place is taken by the muscular Christian who plays with the village deity and heads all the sports of the village. The English parson is now much spirit-filled both over his people, but what he wants in spiritual in-speet. "A right good sort" he is called by the men who see in him only himself, educated, elevated, enlarged, but who do not view him in any other way than as an intruder. He is a man like himself, is the parson, and they mind him when he speaks to them in private might their colonel, but not as a parson. The difference is subtle, but it is there and is significant. Tornado-Proof Houses.

An interesting idea from the west is tornado-proof house. It revolves on pivot, with a big weather vane at one end and a six-pound cannon looking out of a port-hole at the other. When a warning cloud strikes the dwelling the latter necessarily rushes to face it, and the six-pounder is

I am now 72 years of age. I was afflicted with rheumatism which the doctors told me would last the rest of my life. I was treated by several famous men and especially by the late Dr. Williams, without being benefited. I tried the Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and after taking six bottles I am now well and in perfect health. I would not be in my former condition for two hundred dollars.

He never reached Brainerd, and has not been heard from since. His friends fear that he has met with foul play.

There is considerable talk again over the removal of the postoffice, this time to the rooms in the bank block on Sixth street, but from previous experiences it is safe to assume that the change will not be made. The post-office inspector, J. D. Wood, was here the latter part of last week and stated that he would probably report to the department that the present location was preferable to the one from which it was moved on Front street. He was favorably impressed with the bank block location but it is not probable that he will cause its removal there.

The matter of cleaning off sidewalks has been a theme of general conversation and agitation during the past few days. Many of the citizens have complied with the request of the council and terms of the ordinance, but many more have not. Unless the sidewalks are all cleaned, it would have been better to let them remain in their former condition, for as it is now, with a strip of sidewalk cleaned and two with snow three feet high, it makes pedestrianism exceedingly unpleasant and uncertain, especially after nightfall. It is the duty of the city council now to see that the ordinance is strictly enforced, as well as to make some provision to keep the crosswalks cleared.

EXECUTIVE Agent Andrus, of the state game and fish commission, has issued, revised and corrected, a synopsis of the game and fish laws as in operation from this time on. The chief changes over the previous abstract is in respect to disposal of game and game animals. The restriction is made in strict compliance with the law, and all "w" as but five days after the close of the season in which to dispose of the game. Previously the time allowed was ten days, by a certain license granted by the commission. An additional paragraph is given regarding the killing or trapping of song birds, which is strictly prohibited, and arrests for this may be made without warrant when persons are caught in the act.

Claims to Be Innocent.

G. W. Alexander, proprietor of the Fashion restaurant and for two years manager of the Sleeper Opera House, was arrested by Chief of Police Barron on Wednesday evening on a very serious charge. The arrest was made in a furnished room in the Hartley block, where Alexander and a young girl were locked in, the information having been given the authorities that they were occupying the room, by parties who saw them enter the same. He was taken to jail and locked up while the girl was allowed to go home. Yesterday morning Alexander was taken before Judge Chipfield, and the complaint, charging him with seduction, was read, and the time for the examination was set for ten o'clock Monday forenoon, bail being fixed at $1000, which, up to the present time, he has been unable to furnish.

Mr. Alexander claims he is not guilty, but that does not seem to quiet the feeling of hostility that has been aroused against him since the episode of Wednesday night.

Work of the Flames.

What looked as though it would be a disastrous fire before it was brought under control occurred on Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock in James Quinn's building, next to Kelehan's saloon at 6th street. The building was occupied by Wm. Gardner as a saloon and restaurant on the ground floor with furnished rooms above. The fire started in the roof and the department responded at once, but owing to the hydrant at the corner of 6th and Front street being frozen, it delayed matters somewhat, but as soon as the stream from another hydrant was turned on the blaze was soon brought under control, although the building was seriously damaged, the estimate being $500, covered by insurance. Mr. Gardner's loss on furniture was total as he carried no insurance on it. The fire probably originated from a defective chimney. The building will be repaired at once.

Y. M. C. A. Lecture.

Hon. H. C. Stivers delivered the second lecture of the season course, at the Y. M. C. A. on last Monday night. The lecture was entitled "Experience of a Lifetime," and the lecturer carried his audience from childhood to youth and old age in a way that was peculiar to himself. Mr. Stivers is a fluent speaker, and those who were not present missed a great treat. The large hall was filled with those who took an interest in the lecture. After it was over, upon motion of Rev. Mr. Nordon, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, a vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Stivers for his exceedingly interesting lecture.

On Monday, Jan. 22nd, Rev. Mr. West, pastor of the Methodist church, will give the third lecture of the course, entitled from "Killarney to the Blarney Stone." As Mr. West spent twenty years on the "ould sod" those who miss this will miss a treat. Everybody is cordially invited.

Came to a Sudden Stop.

The St. Louis Globe Democrat has the following to say in regard to the damage done on trial in the above city and in which several Brainerd gentlemen were summoned as witnesses:

The trial of the case of Mrs. L. F. Barker vs. the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, for damages for injuries sustained in the railroad wreck at Brainerd, Minn., in January, 1892, came to a sudden stop yesterday morning. The case opened on Wednesday afternoon with reading to the jury the plaintiff's causes of action as embodied in her petition. Then was read the answer of the defense, setting out that Mrs. Barker had signed a release to the company, relieving them, on payment of $500, of all liability for the accident. Next came the replication of Mrs. Barker's attorney, who admitted the fact of the release, but claimed that it was extorted from the lady under duress. To this replica Mrs. Barker's counsel replied, interposing the objection that it presented an issue not to be determined by a jury in a court of law, but before a chancellor in a court of equity. This proposition was sustained by the court, and he suggested that now was the time to dispose of it; whereupon counsel settled down to argue the question, while the jury was released until this morning.

When court convened yesterday morning Judge Phillips indulged in a long but a very clear and interesting discussion of the principles involved. He showed from leading equity cases decided by the highest courts that the circumstances under which such releases were often obtained were such as to render the validity of such agreements a proper subject for examination by an equity court, and the pending cases fell within this class. The trial now in progress would, therefore, be suspended, and Mrs. Barker's counsel would be at liberty to bring in a cross bill, asking to have the release canceled. Judge Phillips suggested, also, that it would be the correct thing for Mrs. Barker to tender to the railroad company the $500 which she received as a consideration for the release.

Cheap Rates to California.

The Northern Pacific Railroad has put into effect a series of low round-trip rates to California points. Tickets are good until April 30th, 1894, and are good for stop over under certain conditions.

These rates will enable those desiring to do so, to spend the winter in southern California, or to visit the mid-winter fair to be held at San Francisco. This latter event will undoubtedly be second only to the World's Fair just closed, and will repay a visit, as it will exhibit the resources and capabilities of California.

St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth to San Francisco and return to Missouri River $80.50, and to Los Angeles and return to Missouri river $90.

FACTS FOR FARMERS.

EDITOR DISPATCH.—Actuated by a desire to stimulate the farmers of this county to a closer study of the principles of farming, especially in the matter of daily husbandry, in which Minnesota is taking high rank, I present the following facts. Last year when the Farmers Institute was held here, at the request of Prof. Haecker, of the State Experiment Farm, I furnished that institution with a sample of upland blue joint, sometimes called pony grass. This sample was analyzed by the chemist of the farm, and the following report returned to me: ST. ANTHONY PARK, Dec. 30, 1894. J. A. WILSON:

I enclose herewith a report of the analysis of the sample of upland blue joint sent me. You will see it is equal to good timothy, cut hay cut in milk, etc. For young growing stock, cows and mares in foal, it is better than timothy.

Yours truly,

T. L. HAECKER.

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA, EXPERIMENT STATION, CHEMICAL LABORATORY.

ST. ANTHONY PARK, Dec. 30, 1893.

To J. A. WILSON:—

The sample of upland blue joint received Nov. 25th, 1893, has been found to have the following composition upon analysis:

Water.....5.14 per cent.
Ash.....6.31 "
Fat.....4.49 "
Protein and nitrogen.....7.44 "
Fiber.....31.31 "
Carbohydrates.....45.31 "

Total.....100.

For comparison I have added a few analyses of other grasses, all grown in the state, and most of them in your locality. The upland blue joint has good points in its favor, a higher content of protein than the other grasses (except clover). The upland prairie hay has less fiber (wood) material than the millet or timothy and compares well as to protein.

HARRY STUBBS, CHEMIST.

All of which is respectfully submitted for the consideration of Crow Wing county farmers.

J. A. WILSON.

Endorse the Governor.

To the officers and members of North Star Lodge 197, I. A. O. M. We, your committee, appointed to draw up resolutions endorsing the action of Gov. Jewell, of Kansas, herewith submit the following for your consideration:

WHEREAS, we the members of North Star Lodge 197, International Association of Machinists, having read your distinguished and able proclamation in regard to inaugurating the "back-pile" and "lock-pile" and WHEREAS, we recognize the fact that the "tramps" and unemployed are made such by our present unjust competitive system of production which does not give to the producers of wealth the full value of their product, and thereby reducing the purchasing power of the masses, and producing under-consumption, which forces many willing and able men to be idle, and

WHEREAS, we condemn any form of government that is elected for the protection of all its people, and which uses its power through class legislation to protect the wealthy and punish men for being poor and out of work, therefore be it

RESOLVED, that we, the members of North Star Lodge 197, International Association of Machinists, located at Brainerd, Minn., hereby extend to you our hearty approval for the firm stand you have taken in this direction and hope that all your official acts in the future will be for equal rights, and be it further

RESOLVED, that we publish a copy of these resolutions in the "Journal" the official organ of our order; also in the papers of this city, and send a copy to Gov. Jewell.

Fraternally your committee,

CHARLES BANKS,
W. S. KILGORE.

The Atlantic's Bed.

Proceeding westward from the Irish coast the ocean bed deepens very gradually. For the first 230 miles the gradient is but six feet to the mile; in the next 20 miles the fall is over 9,000 feet, and so precipitous is the descent that in many places depths of 1,200 to 1,600 fathoms are encountered in very close proximity to the 100 fathom line. With the depth of 1,800 to 2,000 fathoms the seabed becomes a slightly undulating plain 1,200 miles wide. The greatest depth in the Atlantic is 300 miles or so northward of the island of St. Thomas, where soundings of 3,875 fathoms were obtained, or nearly four miles in depth.—Nautical Magazine.

Uses of Amber.

Very few people know that amber, so much used in pincushions, is put to other uses. It makes with other ingredients the finest kind of varnish, such as is used on watch dials. Amber is brought in bulk to this country. Pure amber is valuable, while the clouded material is much cheaper. German factories buy up all the old pipestems possible, and when one takes a pipe to a store to have new amber furnished he must not suppose the old piece is thrown away. He may be carrying the result of the old piece around with him at a later day and not know it on his watch dial.—Philadelphia Call.

Nathan Hale's Sweetheart.

The story that Nathan Hale's sweetheart died unmarried is not correct. Her name was Alice Adams, and she married Elzezer Ripley, and after her death William Lawrence. She died in Hartford in 1845 at the age of 88. Her granddaughter, who was with her when she died, testified to the truth of the story that in her last hours her mind reverted to the love of her youth, and she faintly uttered the words, "Write to Nathan." It was her last utterance.—Buffalo Courier.

The St. Cloud Journal Press says: "Recently a representative of the Journal Press met a well known traveling man who was talking of the condition of the merchants of the different cities in Northern Minnesota. He said the three towns on the Northern Pacific line, where collections were the best, were St. Cloud, Brainerd and Wadena, and he accepted this as a proof of their prosperity."

A telegram from Ronsalton says that George Zoll, a German 21 years old, whose home is Alberta, Benton county, has been missing since Nov. 17th. He had been working for J. W. Lisle, of Buckman all summer, and was paid off on the 17th. Zoll deposited in the bank here $75 of the $90 he received, and started for Brainerd, stating that he would be back in a couple of days. He never reached Brainerd, and has not been heard from since. His friends fear that he has met with foul play.

There is considerable talk again over the removal of the postoffice, this time to the rooms in the bank block on Sixth street, but from previous experiences it is safe to assume that the change will not be made. The post-office inspector, J. D. Wood, was here the latter part of last week and stated that he would probably report to the department that the present location was preferable to the one from which it was moved on Front street. He was favorably impressed with the bank block location but it is not probable that he will cause its removal there.

The matter of cleaning off sidewalks has been a theme of general conversation and agitation during the past few days. Many of the citizens have complied with the request of the council and terms of the ordinance, but many more have not. Unless the sidewalks are all cleaned, it would have been better to let them remain in their former condition, for as it is now, with a strip of sidewalk cleaned and two with snow three feet high, it makes pedestrianism exceedingly unpleasant and uncertain, especially after nightfall. It is the duty of the city council now to see that the ordinance is strictly enforced, as well as to make some provision to keep the crosswalks cleaned.

EXECUTIVE Agent Andrus, of the state game and fish commission, has issued, revised and corrected, a synopsis of the game and fish laws as in operation from this time on. The chief changes over the previous abstract is in respect to disposal of game and game animals. The restriction is made in strict compliance with the law, and it will but five days after the close of the season in which to dispose of the game. Previously the time allowed was ten days, by a certain leeway granted by the commission. An additional paragraph is given regarding the killing or trapping of song birds, which is strictly prohibited, and arrests for this may be made without warrant when persons are caught in the act.

Claims to Be Innocent.
G. W. Alexander, proprietor of the Fashion restaurant and for two years manager of the Sleeper Opera House, was arrested by Chief of Police Barron on Wednesday evening on a very serious charge. The arrest was made in a furnished room in the Hartley block, where Alexander and a young girl were locked in, the information having been given the authorities that they were occupying the room, by parties who saw them enter the same. He was taken to jail and locked up while the girl was allowed to go home. Yesterday morning Alexander was taken before Judge Chipfield, and the complaint, charging him with seduction, was read, and the time for the examination was set for ten o'clock Monday forenoon, bail being fixed at $1000, which, up to the present time, he has been unable to furnish.

Mr. Alexander claims he is not guilty, but that does not seem to quiet the feeling of hostility that has been aroused against him since the episode of Wednesday night.

Work of the Flames.

What looked as though it would be a disastrous fire before it was brought under control occurred on Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock in James Quinn's building, next to Kelehan's saloon on 6th street. The building was occupied by Wm. Gardner as a saloon and restaurant on the ground floor with furnished rooms above. The fire started in the roof and the department responded at once, but owing to the hydrant at the corner of 6th and Front street being frozen it delayed matters somewhat, but as soon as the stream from another hydrant was turned on the blaze was soon brought under control, although the building was seriously damaged, the estimate being $500, covered by insurance. Mr. Gardner's loss on furniture was total as he carried no insurance on it. The fire probably originated from a defective chimney. The building will be repaired at once.

Y. M. C. A. Lecture.
Hon. H. C. Stivers delivered the second lecture of the season course, at the Y. M. C. A. on last Monday night. The lecture was entitled "Experience of a Lifetime," and the lecturer carried his audience from childhood to youth and old age in a way that was peculiar to himself. Mr. Stivers is a fluent speaker, and those who were not present missed a great treat. The large hall was filled with those who took an interest in the lecture. After it was over, upon motion of Rev. Mr. Nordon, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, a vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Stivers for his exceedingly interesting lecture.

On Monday, Jan. 22nd, Rev. Mr. West, pastor of the Methodist church, will give the third lecture of the course, entitled from "Killarney to the Blarney Stone." As Mr. West spent twenty years on the "wild soil" those who miss this will miss a treat. Everybody is cordially invited.

Came to a Sad End.
The St. Louis Globe Democrat has the following to say in regard to the damage case on trial in the above city and in which several Brainerd gentlemen were summoned as witnesses:

The trial of the case of Mrs. L. F. Barker vs. the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, for damages for injuries sustained in the railroad wreck at Brainerd, Minn., in January, 1892, came to a sudden stop yesterday morning. The case opened yesterday afternoon with reading to the jury the plaintiff's causes of action as embodied in her petition. Then was read the answer of the defense, setting out that Mrs. Barker had signed a release to the company, relieving them, on payment of $500, of all liability for the accident. Next came the replication of Mrs. Barker's attorney, who admitted the fact of the release, but claimed that it was extorted from the lady under duress. To this replication Mr. Campbell, for the company, interposed the objection that it presented an issue not to be determined before a jury in a court of law, but before a chancellor in a court of equity. This proposition struck Judge Phillips forcibly, and he suggested that now was the time to dispose of it, whereupon counsel settled down to argue the question, while the jury was released until this morning.

When court convened yesterday morning Judge Phillips called the case, a long but a very clear and interesting discussion of the principles involved. He showed from leading evidence cases decided by the highest courts that the circumstances under which such releases were often obtained were such as to render the validity of such agreements a proper subject examination by an equity court, and the pending case fell within this class. The trial now in progress would, therefore, be suspended, and Mrs. Barker's counsel would be at liberty to bring in a cross-bill in equity to have the release canceled. Judge Phillips suggested, also, that it would be the correct thing for Mrs. Barker to tender to the railroad company the $500 which she received as a consideration for the release.

Cheap Rates to California.
The Northern Pacific Railroad has put into effect a series of low round-trip rates to California points. Tickets are good until April 30th, 1894, and are good for stop over under certain conditions.

These rates will enable those desiring to do so, to spend the winter in southern California, or to visit the mid-winter fair to be held at San Francisco. This latter event will undoubtedly be second only to the World's Fair just closed, and will repay a visit, as it will exhibit the resources and capabilities of California.

St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth to San Francisco and return to Missouri River $80.50, and to Los Angeles and return to Missouri river $90.

Facts For Farmers.

EDITOR DISPATCH.—Actuated by a desire to stimulate the farmers of this county to a closer study of the principles of farming, especially in the matter of daily husbandry, in which Minnesota is taking high rank, I present the following facts. Last year when the Farmers Institute was held here, at the request of Prof. Haeccker, of the State Experiment Farm, I furnished that institution with a sample of upland blue joint, sometimes called pony grass. This sample was analyzed by the chemist of the farm, and the following report returned to me: ST. ANTHONY PARK, Dec. 30, 1894.

J. A. WILSON.
I enclose herewith a report of the analysis of a sample of upland blue joint sent me. You will see it is equal to good timothy, oat hay cut in milk, etc. For young growing stock, cows and mares in foal, it is better than timothy.

Yours truly,
T. L. HAECCKER.
UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA EXPERIMENT STATION, CHEMICAL LABORATORY.
ST. ANTHONY PARK, Dec. 30, 1893.

To J. A. WILSON:—
The sample of upland blue joint received Nov. 25th, 1893, has been found to have the following composition upon analysis:
Water.....5.14 per cent.
Ash.....6.31
Fat.....4.49
Protein and nitrogen.....7.44
Fiber.....31.31
Carbohydrates.....45.31
Total.....100.

For comparison I have added a few analyses of other grasses, all grown in the state, and most of them in your locality. The upland blue joint has good points in its favor, a higher content of protein than the other grasses (except clover). The upland prairie hay has less fiber (wood material) than the millet or timothy and compares well as to protein:

Grasses.	Water	Ash	Fat	Protein	Nitrogen	Fiber	Carbohydrates
Timothy.....	10.17	5.44	1.60	5.62	32	41	44.56
Millet.....	12.51	1.23	0.28	21	90.32	3	3
Upland pr.....	5.90	6.79	2.91	6.31	28	40.90	66
Blue jnt.....	10.25	6.45	4.29	13	34	6	42.54

HARRY SNYDER, Chemist.
All of which is respectfully submitted for the consideration of Crow Wing county farmers.

J. A. WILSON.

Endorse the Governor.
To the officers and members of North Star Lodge 197, I. A. O. M.

We, your committee, appointed to draw up resolutions endorsing the action of Gov. Lewelling, of Kansas, herewith submit the following for your consideration:

WHEREAS, we the members of North Star Lodge 197, International Association of Machinists, having read your distinguished and able proclamation in regard to inaugurating the "bull pen" and "rook pile" and "Wabash," we recognize the fact that the "tram" and unemployed are made such by our present unjust competitive system of production which does not give to the producers of wealth the value of their product, and thereby reducing the purchasing power of the masses, and producing under-consumption, which forces many willing and able men to be idle.

WHEREAS, we condemn any form of government that is elected for the protection of all its people, and which uses its power through class legislation to protect the wealthy and punish men for being poor and out of work, therefore be it

RESOLVED, that we, the members of North Star Lodge 197, International Association of Machinists, located at Brainerd, Minn., hereby extend to you our hearty approval for the firm stand you have taken in this direction and hope that all your official acts in the future will be for equal rights, and be it further

RESOLVED, that we publish a copy of these resolutions in the "Journal" the official organ of our order; also in the city papers, and send a copy to Gov. Lewelling.

Fraternally your committee,
CHARLES BANKS,
W. S. KILGORE.
Approved as read Jan. 1st, 1894.

The Atlantic's Bed.

Proceeding westward from the Irish coast the ocean bed deepens very gradually. For the first 230 miles the gradient is but six feet to the mile; in the next 20 miles the fall becomes a slightly undulating plain 1,200 miles wide. The greatest depth in the Atlantic is 300 miles or so northward of the island of St. Thomas, where soundings of 3,575 fathoms were obtained, or nearly four miles in depth.—Nautical Magazine.

Uses of Amber.

Very few people know that amber, so much used in pipestems, is put to other uses. It makes with other ingredients the finest kind of varnish, such as is used on watch dials. Amber is brought in bulk to this country. Pure amber is valuable, while the clouded material is much cheaper. Varnish factories buy up all the old pipestems possible, and when one takes a pipe to a store to have new amber furnished he must not suppose the old piece is thrown away. He may be carrying the result of the old piece around with him at a later day and not know it on his watch dial.—Philadelphia Call.

Nathan Hale's Sweetheart.

The story that Nathan Hale's sweetheart died unmarried is not correct. Her name was Alice Adams, and she married Eliezer Ripley, and after his death William Lawrence. She died in Hartford in 1845 at the age of 88. Her granddaughter, who was with her when she died, testified to the truth of the story that in her last hours her mind reverted to the love of her youth, and she faintly uttered the words, "Write to Nathan." It was her last utterance.—Buffalo Courier.
